

SOCIETY

ALINE THOMPSON

SOCIETY'S most important function tomorrow will undoubtedly be the dinner dance at the Hotel Marion. As usual a large number of the dancing contingent will attend the festivity, many prominent folk already having made reservations to entertain parties. Among those who will entertain are Miss Ellen Thielson, Miss Hazel Downing, Carl Gabrielson, Erel Kay, and James Young, whose guests will number about twenty-two of the younger set.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Locke entertained last evening with a "500" party. The rooms were aglow with yellow blossoms and greens. Guest were asked for six tables of the game and the score honors were won by Mrs. George Rodgers and George Brown.

Mrs. Edwin L. Baker and Mrs. William Dancy assisted.

Spirit's fairest flowers of white clustered about Miss Ida Grace Dayton when she wedded John Robertson of Moro, Oregon, last evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. Dayton. Quantities of clematis and pink tulles made a pretty foil for the service read by Rev. Carl H. Elliott at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles McAllister of Portland sang "I Love You Truly" and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Maude McCoy. Dr. Floyd B. Dayton of Portland acted as best man. The bride was attended by Miss Alma Phole. Little Barbara Dayton of Astoria, a niece of the bride was ring bearer. The bride wore a charming gown of white lingerie and carried a bouquet of cream roses. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The table was prettily adorned with pink sweet peas and tulles. Assisting were Mrs. A. J. Dayton of Astoria, Miss Della Hagon and Mrs. J. W. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left last night for a wedding trip to Portland. They will be at their home in Moro after June 1st.

Conducted by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brown, Miss Marie and Miss Edna Bilgus and a party of young friends motored to the Briggs home Saturday afternoon to participate in the festivities of a birthday party.

The guests included the Misses Marie Findley, Evelyn DeLong, Vivian Hargrove, Grace Farrar, Maria Sun, Teresa Finney, Genevieve Findley, Bertha Sun, Valrie Briggs and Roscoe

WILLAMETTE GLEE CLUB CONCERT, MAY 17th

Blending the gay repartee of typical rah-rah boys together with the thoroughly enjoyable assortment of solo and quartet selections is characteristic of the Willamette quartet which appears in concert with the Glee Club concert at First Church May 17.

Entertainment plus, is the cohesive agency which brought these rollicking fellows together last fall, and that they can sing their remarkable success in twenty-one concerts in Oregon and Washington towns is ample testimony.

Gus Anderson, first tenor, possesses a rich tenor voice of surprising range and magnitude which he uses to good advantage in both solo, quartet and general glee work. In addition to Anderson's well known ability as a vocalist, he is literally "bringing down the house" with his humorous readings, "A Yankee in Love" and "Moderns are in O. Henry's 'The Gift of the Magi'."

DANDRUFFY HEADS BECOME HAIRLESS

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.
